Workshop Details:

Groups can add life to churches.

There are many types of groups: service, study, support, social, task, and more. Starting a small group could bring needed growth, change, and opportunity to your church.

But how? Join us for our Starting a Small Group workshop at Rally!

LONGEVITY AND TRENDS IN YOUTH MINISTRY

Time: 2:45PM -3:45Pm

Location: Davenport Chapel

Presenters: Drew Bromm, Ryan Dent & Ryan Kelley

Workshop Details:

Drew Bromm is the Executive Minister at First Christian Church in Columbiana, OH. He graduated from Mid-Atlantic Christian University in 2011 with a B.S. in Youth and Family Ministry and Biblical Studies in Theology and from Hope International University in 2021 with a Masters in Christian Leadership. He is passionate about seeing the Church fulfill its mission and people thrive in whatever ministry God calls them. He and his wife, Amanda, enjoy all things Disney, and their dog, Copper.

Ryan Dent has just moved from Student Minister to Connections Minister at LifePointe Christian Church. He lives outside of Williamsburg, VA with his wife Courtney and they are about to celebrate their first year of marriage. Ryan has been in ministry for 11 years and oversees lifegroups, 1st attender assimilation and LifePointe's various Ministry Teams. The church has recently completed a building program and is already filling their new facility.

Ryan Kelley is a 2020 graduate along with his wife, Mallory. He has been the Student Minister at Boones Creek Christian in Johnson City, TN since his graduation. Boones Creek averages 1000-1100 in attendance. Ryan and Mallory both served as RA's at MACU and were known for their Athletic Skills on the Golf Course and Volleyball court.
