Nursing/Biblical Studies Agreement

Officials at the agreement-signing were Robin Harris, COA's ADN Retention Specialist; COA's Ronda Wentz, Program Coordinator and Assistant Professor for the ADN Program; Dr. Kevin Larsen, RBC's Director of Institutional Research and Effectiveness; Lynne M. Bunch, COA's President; Althea Riddick, COA's Vice President of Instruction; Dr. D. Clay Perkins, RBC's President; Debra Dodson, RBC's Director of Service-Learning and Program Advisor; and S. Elizabeth BonDurant, RBC's Vice President for Academic Affairs.

On Jan. 11, officials from Roanoke (RBC) and the College of The Albemarle (COA), located in Elizabeth City, signed an articulation agreement creating a program in which students can earn an Associate Degree in Nursing (ADN) from COA—which can lead to a registered nurse license—and a Bachelor of Science degree in Biblical Studies from RBC.

Purpose and Objectives. RBC's cooperative agreement with COA's nursing program seeks to engage in professional nursing education that promotes lifelong Christian service. The purpose of the nursing program, as articulated by COA, is to prepare students to be licensed as registered nurses. Upon completion of the program, students are eligible to take the National Licensure Examination for Registered Nurses (NCLEX-RN). Satisfactory scores on the NCLEX-RN will enable a student to become a Registered Nurse. Due to RBC's specialized mission, this nursing education takes place in a context in which students are challenged to consider how they might use their training in cross-cultural ministry settings.

Criteria for Admission. Enrollment in the nursing program at COA is limited. Therefore, admission to RBC does not guarantee entrance into the nursing program. Students must apply for admission to the ADN program at COA in addition to their application for admission to RBC. Normally, students will apply for the nursing program during the fall semester of their sophomore year at RBC.

Enrolling. RBC's faculty advisor is Debra D. Dodson, who serves as part-time Service-Learning Director. She is a Registered Nurse, currently working at Perquimans Juvenile Detention Center. She earned her A.A.S. in Nursing from COA in 1978. Enrollment for this dual course of study begins this coming fall. For more information, contact Mrs. Dodson at RBC (252.334.2033) or Robin Harris at COA (252.335.0821, ext. 2395).

As faculty advisor, I am excited and thankful for the new RBC Biblical Studies/Nursing program. This degree will be an asset for those wishing to serve in medical missions or as a Christian professional in the nursing field. I started [a similar program (dual enrollment)] thirty years ago and have been practicing as a Registered Nurse for 28 years. My RBC education prepared me well to meet the spiritual needs of my patients while also serving alongside my husband in ministry. I was well prepared professionally for every nursing position I have held, including working at the University of Cincinnati and University of North Carolina hospitals.

A win-win opportunity for both RBC and COA, stated Dr. D. Clay Perkins, President of RBC on Thursday, January 11, 2007. On this day, College of The Albemarle and Roanoke Bible College signed an Articulation Agreement which would allow a student to receive training in both Nursing and Biblical Studies.

Priority of Preaching

Preachers of the Month Preaching Major Timothy Club Retreat

Leroy Woolard

David K. Jones

Preachers of the Month

January: Leroy Woolard '63 began a student ministry with Hamlet (NC) Church of Christ that continued until 1964. For the next 27 years he ministered with seven congregations in North Carolina and four other states. Since 1991 he has been serving Cool Springs Christian Church, Keysville, VA. He and Sally have two sons (Barry and Gene '96) and three grandchildren.

February: David K. Jones graduated from Eastern Christian College in 1976 and from Lincoln-East Coast in 1996. He held a student ministry in Newark, DE, and then spent 28 years serving the Pole Green Church of Christ in Mechanicsville, VA. In 2005 he accepted the call to preach for Northampton Church of Christ in Hampton, VA. He and Sharon are the parents of Shari Wallace '99 and E. L. Jones '02; they have two grandchildren.

Preaching Ministry Major

Preaching Ministry (PM) students have been earning a PM minor along with their Bible major, but starting next fall, they can earn a double major in Biblical Exposition and Preaching Ministry. They will have classes in various types of preaching from topical to expository and will also choose one-hour electives on such topics as narrative preaching, preaching on sensitive issues, thematic preaching, and the use of media in preaching. They will also choose an area of church growth emphasis (church planting, urban ministry, small groups, or church growth in the smaller church) and have classes in counseling and church leadership. A key component of the preaching major will be a six-hour internship where a student will work under the supervision of a preaching mentor for at least ten weeks.

Timothy Club Retreat, Jan. 19, 20

The twelve pictured on the right participated in the preaching retreat in January, which was led by alumni Jason Kirkman, D.J. Maxey, Chris Minton, and Bobby Wallace. The Preaching Ministry Advisory Committee of the Alumni Association sponsored the retreat. The Timothy Club is a fellowship of preachers who mentor one or more young men — or older men — whom they believe would be good preachers.

GREETINGS FROM THE PRESIDENT

D. Clay Perkins, Ph.D.

elcome to our new Messenger.

We hope you enjoy the change in format. It is our primary tool to keep you in touch with the RBC family.

I am honored and humbled to be the third chief servant of RBC. It is a joy to lead such a fine college. Please know that my door is open and I would love to hear from you! I would also love to come to your church. Please call to set up a visit.

Roanoke Bible College has been set for the defense of the Gospel since 1948 and now stands ready to continue the tradition of educating extraordinary leaders. We are a Christian Church/Church of Christ school. Our primary goal is to train workers/ministers for the Harvest. And we do that very well. RBC has alumni serving in 37 states and 11 countries. RBC is making an international impact for the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Upon this fine foundation, RBC will move boldly into the future. Preaching is now a major! We are looking at distance education, taking our degrees on-line. This will be a wonderful opportunity for the local church and particularly for missions. The elementary education degree is moving in house. (In the near future, students will no longer have to co-op with Elizabeth City State University.) In four years a student now can earn an Associate Degree in Nursing from the College of the Albemarle and a bachelor's degree in Biblical studies from RBC. We are also looking at expanding the nonprofit leadership degree. Many more great things are on the horizon.

These are very challenging times for RBC. We face significant challenges with liquidity and student enrollment issues. The long-term solution is to increase student enrollment. Therefore, we ask that you send us names of anyone in middle or high school that should be encouraged to attend RBC. We also ask you to continue to influence as many as possible to attend RBC. Our strategic goal is to grow to 350 students and then to 500 as quickly as possible.

‘educating extraordinary leaders ...’

Bill Griffin is back in his new role as Assistant to the President. He will also continue to teach.

RBC will be celebrating 60 years next year. If you are interested in helping plan some celebrations, please contact the Office of the President.

You can rejoice with us and be proud that your alma mater was recognized on the national level through Campus Compact, President Bush's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll. This year's awards recognized service activities performed in response to the Gulf Coast hurricanes of 2005. Out of 500 applications received, Roanoke was one of the 77 recognized (and one of only three colleges in North Carolina).

RBC ... celebrating 60 years in 2007-2008

RBC students volunteered 895 hours during fall break in October 2005: raising money to purchase refrigerators and delivering them; assisting relief workers (feeding them, doing laundry, cleaning living areas), and removing debris. Future service is planned for spring break of 2007, when a student-led regional Disaster Assistance Response Team (DART) intends to return to Louisiana. (A DART works in conjunction with International Disaster Emergency Services.)

Again, I am glad to be a part of the RBC family. If you have any questions, please be sure to ask!

Serving those who serve!

Clay

'Foolish Leadership,' March 15; Blueprint Tour Seminar

The college will host the newest seminar in the leadership series "Blueprint for the Future of the Church." The theme "Foolish Leadership" is inspired by 1 Cor. 1:25: "For the foolishness of God is wiser than man's wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than man's strength" (NIV). The seminar will be held at the Towne South Church of Christ building.

Chuck Booher (from Christ's Church of the Valley in San Dimas, CA) and Jeff Walling (from the Providence Road Church of Christ in Charlotte, NC) will present the seminar on Mar. 15.

Registration is $39 ($25 for students) and includes a catered lunch. For more information, call 877.807.5122 or visit www.BlueprintTour.org. Local questions: Dr. Gene Andrews, 252.334.2045 or aea@roanokebible.edu. This and every Blueprint Tour event is presented thanks to the generous support of Church Development Fund.

Comprehensive Campaign Update

On October 7, 2005, the college launched Partnering to Impact the World... The Comprehensive Campaign for Roanoke Bible College, a 4-year campaign designed to supply $12.4 million for general operations during this time-frame. In addition, the funds will be used to help to grow enrollment, enhance academic programs, provide scholarships, and build additional facilities.

To date, more than $2.4 million in campaign commitments and approximately $3.3 million in gifts have been received. Since launching the campaign, five regional stewardship banquets have been held for alumni and friends. A total of 760 people attended and several commitments and gifts were received. In addition, the campaign has been presented to 100+ churches.

Prayers and Additional Financial Support Needed

Even though it was a record year for gift income – and we are very grateful – the overall enrollment declined this past semester (fall 2006). The good news is that the college realized an increased enrollment in the current semester (spring 2007). However, the combined enrollments still did not meet budgeted goals for the current fiscal year. Therefore, the lower-than-anticipated enrollments, combined with overall expenses, have caused the college to experience some short-term cash flow challenges. The Trustees have approved increasing lines of credit to help in the interim, and budget cuts and other reductions to spending have been implemented. In addition, a variety of other options for improving the situation are being reviewed. Some new academic programs have been introduced and others are in the planning stages. Overall, RBC is in good fiscal and physical condition! However, due to the current cash flow challenges, your prayers and additional financial support are needed. If you have questions or to learn how you may help RBC during this time, please contact Howard Amland, Vice President for Development, at 252.334.2025 or eha@roanokebible.edu.

We have so much to be thankful for, and God continues to lead His college in educating men and women for career and volunteer Christian service.

$2.7 Million in Gift Income Received During FY 2005-2006

During the past fiscal year, the college received more than $2.7 million in gifts. Thanks to everyone who gave, it was another record year. Praise the Lord!

a HAIR-RAISING experience

Two women in a Bible study group led by Emmett Murphy (Assistant Vice President for Development) decided to use their talents to raise funds for Roanoke and her mission.

Terri Wells and Diane Dye--members of Olivet Christian Church in Newport News, VA--work at Hairphenalia in Yorktown, VA, where the owners allowed them to set up a college display. On Jan. 22 they offered free haircuts, coloring, and shampoos in exchange for donations to the college. They provided their skills and materials, resulting in $560 raised for RBC!

Terri commented that she "hoped others . . . would pick up on [similar projects] as a way of supporting RBC."

To that, we say, "Amen" and "Thanks!"

RBC Foundation helps create alumni

Alumni can help increase their numbers by supporting the RBC Foundation, either by giving to existing funds or by creating new funds. Over 100 endowed funds provide money not only for student scholarships, but also for specialized needs such as faculty education, campus improvements, or library growth, depending on the wishes of the donor.

These funds are managed by a conservative and faithful board of directors who seek long-term growth. For more information on a particular fund or for help in starting a new one ($5,000 minimum) or giving to an existing one, contact Development Secretary Jenny Rowland (jer@roanokebible.edu or 252.334.2008).

Two from the Class of 2005 expressed their appreciation for such giving: Beth Cross Herbst: "It was such a blessing to go to school with less financial stress because someone cared enough to give. Thank you for your generosity." Tim Winberg: "I am a disabled military veteran . . . Thank you so much for supporting the spiritual soldiers being trained at RBC!"
