Assignment of office hours and office space:

The Field Mentor must have weekly one-hour conferences/debriefing with the intern. The time and place can be mutually arranged by the intern and the supervising minister. This time needs to be scheduled (without interruptions). If needed, an additional co-mentor may be assigned should the Field Mentor be away. The university requests that the Field Mentor miss no more than two of these weekly meetings.

As part of the mission of Mid-Atlantic, the Internship program seeks to assist students in understanding the environment and culture for the world in which they live and work. Cultural differences can be in many areas: ethnic, racial, gender, age, socio-economic, etc. The following outcomes for students have been established in this area and we ask Field Mentors to be especially cognizant of how students are achieving these goals. Discussion of these areas would be of value during the weekly mentoring meetings.

1. Students will be able to use their knowledge of cultural differences to navigate intercultural experiences successfully.
2. Students will be able to demonstrate interest in other cultures through initiating inquiry and interaction.
3. Students will be able to suspend premature judgments when interacting cross-culturally.

The time and location of this will generally be: _____
